

Westy Martin on the Santa Fe Trail - Fitzhugh

Mr. Madison C. Wilde, Field Manager of Educational Films, has engaged young Westy Martin, the so-called best scout since Buffalo Bill, to act as his guide on the Santa Fe Trail, as he makes a movie about the history and future of the famous trail. As they set off by train, Westy's friends all call for souvenirs, but maybe they are a bit envious? It doesn't take long for Westy and his companion Rip to find themselves in the midst of the action and possible danger.

The language and ideas in this book reflect the period in which it was written. Librivox does not censor works recorded. Some readers and listeners may be offended.

Read by Librivox volunteers. Total running time: 03:48:33

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover picture unknown photographer. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by annise. This design is in the public domain.

Westy Martin on the Santa Fe Trail - Fitzhugh